EATINERARIES IN BOCCADASSE

Imagine a lovely fishing village built out of pastel-coloured houses, carved into green hills along the Mediterranean Sea. No, it's not a fantasy, it's Boccadasse, just a short ride beyond Genoa's city centre. On this food tour, we'll take a trip to the village, where you'll learn the true way to make authentic Genovese pesto, and also go hunting for a proper Italian gelato!

After our afternoon with the locals of Boccadasse, learning about Genoese traditions, we'll hop back on the public bus and return to Brignole Train Station, where our tour ends and you'll be free to see more of Genoa on your own.
